Two sailing vessels arrived and aands under contract with the new number of Island steamers departed, about tells the tale of the water-front yesterday. The barkentines Amelia and George C. Perkins got in from Eureka with lumber, having made fair trips. Among the vessels of the island fleet to depart were the Maui for Waikukona and Hamakua ports; the Lehua for Maui and Molokai ports; the Iwalehi for Kauai ports; and the Noeau for Maui and Hamakua ports. The schooner Kauakeau also sailed for Paauilo. Due today are the Gaelic from Yokohama and the Coptic from the coast with mail and papers. The Gaelic should get in early this morning and the Coptic on toward evening.

Meade Investigation.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22.—When the transport Meade returns to San Francisco on or about January 15th, there will be an official investigation into certain things concerning her personnel which promises to produce some interesting, if not sensational, results. The investigation is the growth of the recent disturbance among the Meade's engineer
